By signing below, I am saying that my employment application is true and complete. I allow Joyful enterprises to talk to my previous employment, education, references, and other things they need to decide whether to hire me. I also say that prior employers, schools, and individuals can answer their questions about the job I want.

If I am hired by Joyful enterprises and it is discovered that I didn't tell the truth, I understand that this may affect my employment at the café.
